MAJOR EDWARD VERNON (TED) CARRINGTON

1941-201

Major Ted Carrington sadly died on 24 September 2018; he had been suffering from Parkinson's for some 7 years and had borne his illness with dignity.

Ted was OC HQ Sqn Sultan of Oman's Parachute Regiment (SOPR) from 1983 to 1987, during David Baxter's (an ex Sherwood Forester) time in command. He was originally a TA soldier who turned Regular in Oman. Ted was commissioned into the 7th Battalion (TA) The Cheshire Regiment and later commanded A Company The Mercian Volunteers in Stockport.

He took to life in Rostaq as the first OC HQ Sqn during a time of expansion for SOPR. He completed his parachute training, gained his wings and was an avid mountain walker/climber and tried to find a north face route to Jebel Shams (The Mountain of the Sun at 2900 metres) from the village of Balad Sayt and just failed to reach the summit.

In Oman he met his future wife Christine Bewsher, a consultant paediatric nurse on loan to Al Nahda Hospital from The Hospital for Sick Children Great Ormond Street (GOSH). They decided, with regret and many happy memories, to leave Oman in September 1987; Christine returned to GOSH and Ted went on to study Medieval History at Birkbeck College eventually moving to Lancaster in 1996.

Ted's funeral took place in Milnthorpe Cumbria with the Regimental Standard present and Chris Lyall, SOPR free fall instructor, gave an amusing summary of Ted's life in Rostaq. We send our deepest sympathy to Christine, his son Nick and daughter Lucie.

Franklyn Arthur Collins [Frank]

Frank joined B Company 1 Mercian (v) and served for 1 month. He decided that he wanted to join the Regular Army but was turned down because they said he was too old, so he applied to the Navy and was accepted. When he passed out after training, they offered him to either go in the Royal Marines or the Royal Navy, he chose the Royal Navy on Polaris Submarines. He reached the Rank of Chief Petty Officer in the medical branch.

After 10 years he retired from the Navy and in civilian life he became a Health and Safety Officer at Universities and Colleges. He was an active member of The Royal Navy Association, Chairman of the Kidderminster Branch of the British Legion and a very active member of the MVRA Kidderminster & District Branch. He leaves behind wife Elaine, son Paul, daughter Joy and two granddaughters.

Major David E Collins TD

Major David Collins died on Tuesday 18th June 2019 at Alexandra Hospital Redditch, after a long illness.

In civilian life he eventually had his own plumbing company. He was called up for National Service on the 22nd of June 1950 at Lichfield, where he served as an Instructor. He joined the 7th Battalion in 1950 with C Company, Malvern. He quickly rose through the ranks to be CSM.

He was a member of the Battalion contingent at the Territorial Army Silver Jubilee parade in London. He was always involved with shooting and represented the Company and the Battalion in various competitions including Bisley

David eventually moved to HQ Company as QM [T] at Silver Street, Worcester until the disbandment of the 7th battalion in 1967 when he joined The Worcestershire Territorials RA, TAVR111. On the disbandment of this unit he was a founder member of the Worcestershire Regiment Cadre commanded by Major Vines TD. The Cadre became A Company [Worcestershire], Light Infantry & Mercian commanded by Major Vines with David as his second in Command. This became A Company, 2nd Battalion Mercian Volunteers.

On the promotion of Major Vines, David was appointed OC of the Company. He retired in 1978. He had been awarded the TA and TAVR Territorial Efficiency Medal and the Territorial Decoration for his service. He had that wonderful ability to motivate others to succeed with his endeavours. Whatever he was engaged in, be it social or military, he gave his all. He was a lifelong member of the WRA, MVRA and a supporter of all things Regimental. He was also a member of the 'Ancient Order of Foresters'.

Sadly, his involvement became more limited as his sight deteriorated and he became confined to a wheelchair. Both he and Margaret (see page 10), are sorely missed. The Association was represented by Colonels Griffiths, Jeavons and Lewis, and by Mr Kirk, Mrs Vines and Mrs Sayers.

Major Mike Kennison

This year marks the 30th anniversary of the tragic death of one of 2 Mercian's (v) rising stars, Mike Kennison. Mike had been commissioned from the ranks in August 1978, swiftly reached the rank of Major and was appointed OC D Coy, 3 Staffords at Bath Street, Walsall. On 4 February 1989, on one of the first major Battalion exercises after his appointment, he was commanding D Company during a night-time helicopter insertion on Thetford training area, when he fell from a considerable height from the RAF Puma in which he was flying. His funeral at St John's Church, Walsall Wood, was attended by a great many of his Army colleagues and friends. He was a much-liked and very competent TA Officer whose potential was, sadly, never able to be fully realised. He is still well-remembered, and missed, by many of his former fellow soldiers.

Lt Peter Glibbery

died on 28 June 2019 following a long fight with cancer. Peter had an interesting Army career. He joined Birmingham University OTC when studying for a degree in engineering, was commissioned into the TA at University and then joined D Coy 2 Mercian (v), as a platoon commander. Peter served with 2 Mercian (v) for about 18 months, but then left, and resigned his commission, deciding that being a soldier of fortune was much more interesting occupation than being in the TA!! He helped train the USA-backed Contra rebels in Nicaragua, but was captured by government troops and spent some time in prison for his efforts. He is remembered as a very enthusiastic and skilled soldier who had much to offer.

He is survived by his wife, Alison.

Forthcoming Events

A list of forthcoming Branch events can be found on our Facebook page.

Branch activities are many and varied. Nottingham held a social evening to celebrate their Secretary's Birthday, or at least that was the excuse! A very successful evening was held at the 4 Mercian Army Reserve Centre, for which the Branch is very appreciative.

An excellent evening was enjoyed by the guests including Phil Squires whose health is continuing to improve. Even when he was in hospital and later housebound, he continued to organise Branch events. We wish him every goodwill in his continuing recovery.

The main Association events are the Annual Picnic at the Mercian Grove, National Memorial Arboretum on August 25th at 1100 am.

A short Service will be held before the 'Picnic'. This is an opportunity for members, families and friends to meet and renew friendships.

Everyone is welcome.

This will be followed by our Annual Memorial Service at the Mercian Grove on November 6th followed by the Executive Committee. meeting at Mercian RHQ
